

Wonders & Worries

Professional support for children through a parent's illness.

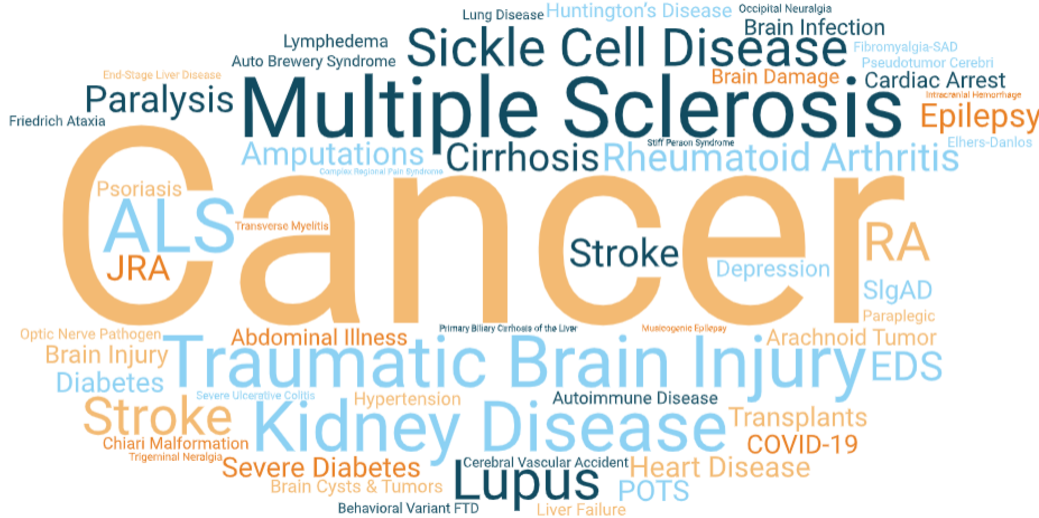

We will, together.

Support Wonders & Worries With Your Vote

Wonders & Worries is so proud to have Board Member Kevin Hines as a finalist for the Unsung Hero Award. This special recognition, by the Round Rock Community Foundation, highlights an outstanding volunteer within the community. The winner will be announced at the Legacy Awards Luncheon on September 22nd.

We are also excited to see Emerson, a member of our Corporate Circle of Excellence, is a finalist for the Nancy Rabb Legacy Award.

Serving More Than May You Think

While 80% of our client families are dealing with a parent's cancer diagnosis, we are able to support children and parents who are dealing with many other serious physical illnesses. You could refer more families than you think.

The Harry E. and Eda L. Montandon Charitable Trust

Thank you to the Montandon Charitable Trust!

We are extremely grateful to The Harry E. and Eda L. Montandon Charitable Trust for their generous gift of $25,000 to go toward providing therapeutic sessions and consultations for families in Central Texas. Our continued partnership with the Montandon Charitable Trust enables us to deliver a much-needed service in the Central Texas area.

SHIELD-AYRES FOUNDATION

Thank you to The Shield Ayres Foundation!

We thank the Shield-Ayres Foundation for their longtime and generous support of the families in Travis and Bexar Counties. Their donation of $15,000 will provide almost 3,000 therapeutic sessions for families affected by a parent's life-changing illness.

THE BURDINE JOHNSON FOUNDATION

Thank you to the Burdine Johnson Foundation!

We would like to extend our tremendous gratitude to the Burdine Johnson Foundation for their charitable contribution of 5,000 in support of 63 therapeutic sessions for Hays County children and teens.
